A board-certified anesthesiologist, Dr. Bell received his M.D. degree and his doctorate from the J.W. Goethe University in Frankfurt, Germany. He spent nine years in the German navy as a medical officer; during that time he was trained as a naval flight surgeon at the U.S. Naval Aerospace Medical Institute in Pensacola, Florida.

Dr. Bell served as deputy medical director of the Department of Anesthesiology and Intensive Care Medicine at Ostseeklink Damp and completed numerous national and international rescue missions as emergency physician of the German Air Rescue. Prior to his assignment at American University of Antigua (AUA) he chaired the Department of Anesthesiology and Intensive Care Medicine at Holberton Hospital, St. John's, Antigua. Dr. Bell served as Vice President for Academic Affairs and Executive Dean Antigua Campus for AUA from 2005 through 2009.

Dr. Bell's position as VP for Global Medical Education at Manipal Education Americas entails managing and directing at the highest executive level operations and activities relating to admissions, financial aid, accounting, information technology, purchasing,
